

Public Disclosure:
Kendall College
Voluntary Resignation of Accreditation
Effective: August 6, 2018

Kendall College in Chicago, Illinois, voluntarily resigned its stand-alone accreditation with the Higher Learning Commission effective August 6, 2018, the closing date for its transfer of programs and assets to National Louis University.

As an additional location of National Louis University, the College is now included within the University's HLC accreditation. The University also now will handle all transcript requests from Kendall College students.

About the Higher Learning Commission

The Higher Learning Commission accredits approximately 1,000 colleges and universities that have a home base in one of 19 states that stretch from West Virginia to Arizona. HLC is a private, nonprofit accrediting agency. It is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation. Questions?
